ABOUT

Alex Cousins is a genre-bending cellist blending classical tradition with cinematic edge. A graduate of the Peabody Institute of Music (Johns Hopkins University), Alex brings world-class artistry to both acoustic and electric cello performance.

His performances have been featured at luxury weddings, beachfront and outdoor celebrations, upscale restaurants and hotels, corporate events, art galleries, and immersive wellness experiences.

Whether creating an elegant atmosphere for a cocktail reception or delivering a cinematic electric cello performance, Alex crafts musical experiences that are refined, emotionally resonant, and visually captivating.

Reimagining the cello for modern audiences, his work bridges classical mastery with contemporary style – elevated, transportive, and unforgettable.
