

Alex Cousins is a genre-defying cellist and composer reimagining what the cello can be. Through his project Strings Unbound, he blends classical depth with modern tone design to create performances that are cinematic, raw, and emotionally charged. A Peabody Conservatory graduate, Alex invites listeners to feel deeply and experience the cello as a voice of truth and transformation.