

Alex Cousins is a classically trained cellist and frontman blending classical precision with the energy of rock and pop. A graduate of the Peabody Conservatory and creator of Strings Unbound, he brings the electric cello to the forefront as a lead instrument, performing everywhere from intimate events to major venues including KeyBank Center and Kleinhans Music Hall.